What I've Noticed While Zoning Out

The lifetime of the soul to me is like that of a cycle, The elder on his deathbed is the same as a fetus in its mother's womb:

Weak, confused, reliant on others, and waiting for a new life, a new chapter. One waiting for the start of life, while the other waits for the end. It reminds the human about its past, and what leads them to spiral back. To remind the human of his lifetime and its many aspects and surroundings. Every human, animal, plant, and object they've interacted with.

And to think that all these living and dead creatures and objects we've seen all our lifetime (including us) are all made by one divine deity, birthed and birthed by no one, knower and seeing of all, no companion and no similars. To think that these creations all benefit from each other in such a delicate way. That everything has a reason, a purpose, a script they must follow. I would not blame a disbeliever when they think it's absolutely baloney, because God's ideas and plans for this world and its citizens are greater than what anything a common joe would expect.

What interests me about the soul is how much it rebels and follows at the same time: It follows its brain, its psychology, its culture, its leader, etc....Yet, surprisingly, it manages to manipulate and break its limits, sometimes for the better, sometimes for the worse. It creates a beautiful balance.

But these days, the balance has been corrupted, and the yin and yang are getting more exaggerated, fighting for the other's place instead of embracing eachother.

It truly makes me feel that Satan himself has clawed this earth. He has sent down his greatest power to prey on innocent children.

You may have heard of this power, it is no stranger for anyone who has not been living under a rock for the past 100 years, it's the land of the "free", from Texas to Tennessee, The united states of America.

God curse this absolute faggotry of a "Country", for it has done severe damage to cultures all around the world. It was founded not as a Nation but as an idea for a new world and a new way of thinking, depending on this false promise of liberty.

I cannot understand american patriots that bow down to a state run by kikes that dont want to secure their petty conservative interests at all.

What's impressive, to say the least, about it is how they can easily trick two familiar sides into despising each other. Take for example, Muslims and Christians. Destined brothers. United by their love for Jesus/Isa.

But one day, a snake emerged from the dirt, Jews, people usually call them, and it hissed in the ears of the two brothers. "Your friend is a heretic" it whispered, "A sinner, a colonizer, an invader! traitor to god!". The brothers? they were quite gullible.

After this, in times of crisis, they wouldn't lend each other a hand anymore, they wouldn't cry when the other was gone. To them, the other was the problem. For they have been poisoned with western thoughts of "different idea=bad". One must imagine the elite giggling in this situation. To them, we were dogs barking at each other

Another thing I've noticed, is their disrespect for God's wishes. Feminize the men. Profit off the women. Exploit the children. Erase the cultures. Add chemicals to the food. Wipe off the animals. Burn the world. But At least you now have equality and diversity right?.....right?

You whine about 6 million deaths yet laugh at the 6 million you're causing in the middle east, no respect for God, no respect for humanity, no respect for the morals that you preach about.

He gave you 3 chances on this earth yet you lied and wrecked havoc on all of them. Son of Satan, liar, and false promiser, they sound like the adjectives used to describe your brainwashed conservative dad but they truly fit the liberal jewish government of our times.

In 1947, America planted a seed in Christianity's birthplace, Palestine. This seed grew to be a weed corrupting the watermelon farms of the West bank. It was a Demon, the son of Greater Satan America himself, Israel, that was what the maps called it.

When one would bat an eye to its actions, they would be bombarded with claims of Israel being the only middle eastern democracy. A nation cannot be for the peoples vote if it keeps killing the people. You are not the USA's greatest ally. You are a devil born in heaven. And if the Palestinians cannot take you down, then their God will.

Take my word.

And the jew's biggest achievement in this world is making people think that freedom exists and framing it as foreign peoples invading your country, framing it as homosexuality, framing it as daily masturbation, as disobedience, as sin, as free markets that lead to an oligarchy.

To them, regulation and order is a poison to their plans of ruining the world.

Anytime I go outside, I see poor women and men lying in the street, barely eating, scraping the barrel for even a coin. It sickens me how at the same time, there are billionaires on yachts, with no care for the world.

Onlyfans whores showing their sacred bodies in exchange for money, getting transplants and wearing little to no clothing, just to appeal to young gullible men. Making them think that this is normal. It isn't. The human body is a gift from God, it is an almost perfect creation, working in such a calculated strategic way, Its the most beautiful part of man and woman. Only to be exploited and sexualized for perverts

And children.

There has been this fetish going around glamorizing a relationship between a younger man (mostly teenage) and a middle aged woman. They want to shove this pedophilic bullshit in the throats of young men disguising it as normal and feminist.

This is what they want, to normalize all evil on this earth. They convinced the others, and they're going after you. Yes. You.

They have tried their best villainizing innocent middle easterns. “terrorists! pedophiles! extremists! invaders!” they cried, “beware before they get to your precious christianity! (that we don't really care about)”.

I have never seen such a nation that's as gullible and brainwashed as the USA and those who support it. The Pajeets are disgusting rapists that eat cow feces and shit it out on the streets. The Emiratis shove their money up their asses. The kikes shoot anybody that disagree with them. The niggers are well…niggers. Yet, they are the most respected people of this world even though they have added nothing but terror. Their philosophies are screwed up and extremely immoral, they're super unstable, yet they're worshipped like the sun. And they're compared to Mexicans who are: Hardworking, Catholic, Caring, etc…

You blame them for immigrating to America when you fund the Cartels and Jewish government that slaughter innocent people and lead them to poverty. Hypocrisy on another level.

Another thing I want to talk about is the favoritism of businessmen and manufacturers over artists and writers. Not to sound like THOSE people but with the rise of AI art, greedy people have been finding ways of not employing starving artists, thus generating unemployment and risking death of the tradition that we humans have relied on since the start of mankind.

Art and writing have been the Sisyphus that are carrying the boulder that is history. Documenting the most important of events and writing religion just to show the future what their present was. But Judaism has rendered that art useless since they despised human emotion and only wanted greed, thus favoring the bankers over the writers of humanity.

Talking about greed, I want to mention CEOs. These people do not give two fucks what is going on in the community of their company because atleast theyre raking in the cash. I have a certain friend of mine, like any normal person, he was scrolling on X (The Everything App) when he came across an Advertisement for Child Sexual Abuse Media, With collages of Infants.

When he went to the X support team, he was met with….nothing. No punishment for the advertisers. Nothing. This is probably because X gets a portion of its money from advertisers, so they obviously wouldn't bat an eye to this disgusting content circling around on their site, because at least they're getting some money. Money. Money. Money. That's the fucking goal to all these scumbags ruining our society. They only see dollar signs, they dream of dollar signs, they hear the sound of coins. They have put aside all their morals for a currency.
